

The Medicare Savings Programs

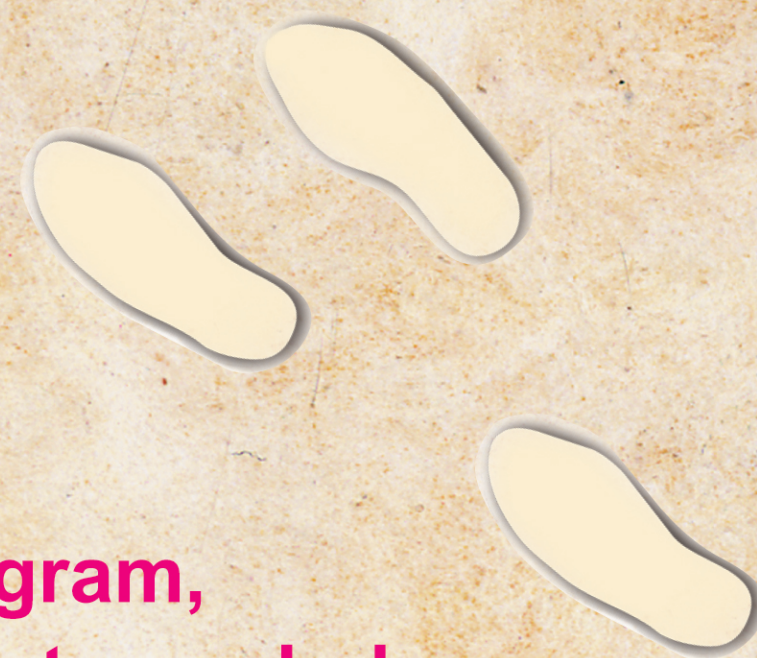

Even with Medicare,

Indian Elders and Indians

with a disability, face some big challenges when it comes to getting the health care they need.

As part of the medical assistance program, States have programs that may help-- the Medicare Savings Programs.

Find Out More:

Step 1: Learn about the Medicare Savings Programs in this brochure.

Step 2: Answer the important questions inside.

Step 3: Talk to your State or tribal health or social service provider, the National Indian Council on Aging Education Program at (505) 821-2609, or 1-800-MEDICARE toll-free for help. TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048.

Or visit www.medicare.gov.

When you call, ask for information on the Medicare Savings Programs.
